

SUPREME COURT OF THE VIRGIN ISLANDS

September 14, 2010

PRESS RELEASE

Press Release No. 2010-012

The Supreme Court of the Virgin Islands wishes to announce the appointment of the following nine (9) members to the Commission on Judicial Conduct in accordance with Virgin Islands Supreme Court Rule 209, as amended.

- Attorney Treston Moore has been appointed as an Attorney Appointee to the Commission by Hon. Governor John P. DeJongh. Attorney Moore's term shall expire on August 1, 2014.
- Mr. Angel Morales has been appointed as a Public Member to the Commission by Hon. Governor John P. DeJongh. Mr. Morales' term shall expire on August 1, 2013.
- Superior Court Judges Julio Brady and James S. Carroll III, both have been appointed as Judicial Members to the Commission by Chief Justice Rhys S. Hodge. Judge Brady's term shall expire on August 1, 2014. Judge Carroll's term shall expire on August 1, 2013.
- Magistrate of the Superior Court Jessica Gallivan has been appointed as a Judicial Member to the Commission by Presiding Judge Darryl Dean Donohue. Magistrate Gallivan's term shall expire on August 1, 2012.
- Attorney Emile Henderson III has been appointed as an Attorney Member to the Commission by Presiding Judge Darryl Dean Donohue. Attorney Henderson's term shall expire on August 1, 2013.
- Ms. Sharmane Brooks and Mr. Gaylord Sprauve both have been appointed as Public Members to the Commission by Senate President Louis P. Hill. Ms. Brooks' term shall expire on August 1, 2012. Mr. Sprauve's term shall expire on August 1, 2014.
- Attorney Andrew Capdeville has been appointed as an Attorney Appointee to the Commission by Attorney Richard Evangelista, President of the Virgin Islands Bar Association. Attorney Capdeville's term shall expire on August 1, 2012.

In accordance with Virgin Islands Supreme Court Rule 209, the Commission has been established to administer a judicial discipline and incapacity system for judicial officers, which includes Justices of the Supreme Court, Judges and Magistrates of the Superior Court. Regulation of judicial conduct in the Virgin Islands is critical to preserving the integrity of the Virgin Islands' judiciary and enhancing the public's confidence in the judicial system. The Commission has jurisdiction over all judges regarding allegations of misconduct that may have occurred before or during service as a judge and regarding allegations of incapacity during service as a judge. The Commission also has continuing jurisdiction over former judges regarding allegations of misconduct that occurred before or during service as a judge if a complaint is made within one year following service as a judge.
